Plans to Reduce the Strength of the Asiatic Squadron.

The Larger Vessels No Longer Needed in the Fleet of Admiral Watson. A List of Those to Be Ordered Home or Stationed Elsewhere Being Prepared by Secretary Long.

Secretary Long is said to be preparing a list of the ships now on the Asiatic station which will be returned to this country and added to the North and South Atlantic squadrons or sent to Europe to re-establish the European Squadron, which was discontinued at the outbreak of the war with Spain. Of the thirty-one vessels now in Asiatic waters at least ten of them, it is thought, will be ordered home. Exactly which of the vessels will be selected will depend upon the report from Rear Admiral Watson on the conditions of the vessels and the ones which can be best spared.

It is thought that all the larger vessels except the Brooklyn, now used by Admiral Watson for a flagship, will be sent home. Secretary Long, it is said, was influenced in deciding to reduce the Asiatic squadron by the fact that there is no longer any need for the large vessels in the Philippines. It has been some time since any of the vessels have been engaged in active operations against the insurgents and those that have taken part have been ships of light draft which can run in close to shore and land their crews with ease.

General Otis only a few days ago called the War Department that what he needed in opening the hemp ports was vessels of light draft. Such vessels as the Baltimore, Concord, and Oregon are too large to be of any use to General Otis, and their stay at Manila is endangering the health of the officers and crews. The Celtic and Culgoa, supply ships; the Glacier, refrigeration ship, and the Iris, distilling ship, will of necessity have to remain in the Philippines to furnish supplies to the other vessels. The latter are engaged in assailing coast towns of the islands or to head off the insurgents from moving from one island to another. In place of the big vessels to be brought home some of the torpedo boats now being completed may be sent to take their places and to be used by General Otis in opening the hemp ports. Some of the vessels which may be brought home are the battleship Oregon, the protected cruisers Baltimore, New Orleans, and Newark, the gunboats Concord, Bennington, Wheeling, and Castine, and the monitors Monadnock and Monterey.

The vessels now on the Asiatic squadron and their commanders are as follows: Brooklyn, flagship, Capt. T. F. Jewell; Baltimore, Capt. J. M. Forsyth; Bennington, Commander C. H. Arnold; Brutus, Commander S. W. Verry; Celtic, Lieutenant Commander J. K. Patch; Concord, Commander W. H. Akeley; Culgoa, Commander W. H. Everett; Dor Juan de Austria, Commander T. C. McLean; Glacier, Lieutenant Commander J. B. Briggs; Helena, Commander E. K. Moore; Iris, Lieut. J. M. Orchard; Isla de Cuba, Commander F. P. Gilmore; Isla de Luzon, Commander J. Y. B. Bleeker; Manila, Lieutenant Commander A. P. Nazro; Marietta, Commander E. H. Green; Monadnock, Capt. J. McGowan; Monterey, Commander G. A. Bicknell; Newark, Capt. G. W. Pigman; Nanshan, Commander R. P. Rodgers; Newark, Capt. B. H. McCalla; New Orleans, Capt. E. Longnecker; Oregon, Capt. G. F. Wilde; Petrel, Lieutenant Commander J. T. Smith; Princeton, Commander H. Knox; Wheeling, Commander W. T. Burwell; Yorktown, Commander C. S. Perry; Yosemite, Capt. G. E. Hoar, and Zahro.

The additional guests were the Ambassador of Italy and Baroness de Fava, the Ambassador of Germany, the Ambassador of Russia, the Ambassador of Mexico and Senator Antonio, the Minister of Sweden and Norway, the Minister of Guatemala, the Minister of Austria-Hungary and Mme. Von Hengelmüller, the Minister of Denmark, the Minister of Haiti and Madame Leroy, the Minister of Korea and Mrs. Pom. The shock and strain of being fired from a cannon during a circus performance, would seem to be extraordinary. But it is not nearly so wearing upon the average woman's nervous system, as the strain and drain of the married life of the married woman. It is the great shock of the "containing" her energy which wears her out, but the interminable leakage of her strength through the diseases that affect the delicate womanly organs.

To stop this ceaseless leakage of strength is as much the desire of a wife of women. It can be done once and for all by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This medicine is not a cure-all but it is specially designed for a specific purpose, the cure of the chronic diseases peculiar to women. It does up the drains, allays inflammation, heals the ulcerations and cures the displacements which are at the bottom of woman's miseries.

There is neither opium, cocaine or other narcotic contained in "Favorite Prescription."

"For five years my wife was in an almost helpless condition, suffering from female weakness," writes J. S. Everett, Esq., of Hagerman, Washington Co., Pa. "I am September 1, decided to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. She took several bottles of the medicine and gave birth to a fine boy on January 31, '99. She is now sound and well and doing her housework."

A gift. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser 1008 pages, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of postage only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper bound volume, or 31 stamps for cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A Woman Decapitated. CARLISLE, Ill., Jan. 18.—Mrs. George Sabal was decapitated at Virden yesterday afternoon by a passenger train. She had just arrived from Germany and was met by her husband and a number of friends at the train. Husband and wife had not seen each other for ten years. After the affectionate meeting they started home and in attempting to cross the tracks in front of an engine the wife's dress became entangled in the wheels and she was drawn under and her head cut off.

New York's Underground Railroad. NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—John B. MacDonald, who was awarded the contract for $25,000,000 to build the underground railroad in New York, says that he will soon have 20,000 men employed on the undertaking, and that work will begin within thirty days. He also says part of the road will be in operation in 1903. The road will extend from the city hall to beyond 218th Street, a distance of about twelve miles.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Maud Agnes Cleary, daughter of Judge Nicholas F. Cleary, son of New York, and Mr. Edward J. Brady, of Garrett Park, Md., were married yesterday at the Sacred Heart Church, at Norfolk. The bride was given in white satin crepe, trimmed with point lace duchesse, tulle veil, and orange blossoms. She wore no jewels, and in place of the conventional bouquet, carried a pearl rosary. Rev. John D. Whitney, President of Georgetown University, performed the ceremony. A wedding breakfast was served at the residence of Lieutenant Commander Reeves, of the Navy. The bride and groom left on a Southern tour. Miss Marlin Reeves, of Norfolk, cousin of the bride, was her only attendant. Mr. Maurice Broome Kirby, of New York, was the groom's best man, and Messrs. John Clarke Whelan, of Michigan; James Simpson Whelan, of Baltimore; Joseph Calman Brown, of Boston; Richard James Watkins and Hampton Young, of New York, both of Washington, were the ushers. The groom is the son of Major Brady, of Garrett Park.

Miss Hayes, of this city, attended the handsome reception given yesterday in Baltimore by Mr. and Mrs. James Sloan.

America, through its Executive, entertained the foreign powers represented at the National Capital last night at a state dinner, given by Mr. McKinley in honor of the Diplomatic Corps. The President's hospitality, as usual upon such important occasions, was of an unusually generous character as to the overflow of the boundary lines of the state dining room, and the table, sixty feet in length, was spread in the main corridor, as was as green and festal with foliage plants and vases. A pink of maiden-hair ferns, starred with pink capillary orchids, formed the floral centerpiece of the table, and along the snowy length of the board were set a paler green. Pyramids of grapes and crystal bowls of strawberries gave glowing touches of color, together with faintly tinted bonbons set about in tiny dishes of china and glass. The candles in the emblems, burned under flange silver shades, lined with red, and amid the dark green leaves of tall palm trees sparkled electric lights in the national colors. The ceiling and chandelier were festooned with garlands of smilax, and dwarf orange trees and huge bushes of red lilies filled the niches on either side of the mirrors. The East Room was banked about the walls with exotic foliage plants and the center of the floor was marked by mounds of living greenery, from which rose the graceful boughs of a sago palm. The distinguished company assembled in the East Parlor, where they were welcomed by the President and Mrs. McKinley, Colonel Bingham making the presentation. The President escorted Lady Pauncefote to dinner, and Mrs. McKinley, with Lord Pauncefote, the Ambassador from Great Britain, and dean of the Diplomatic Corps.

The additional guests were the Ambassador of Italy and Baroness de Fava, the Ambassador of Germany, the Ambassador of Russia, the Ambassador of Mexico and Senator Antonio, the Minister of Sweden and Norway, the Minister of Guatemala, the Minister of Austria-Hungary and Mme. Von Hengelmüller, the Minister of Denmark, the Minister of Haiti and Madame Leroy, the Minister of Korea and Mrs. Pom. Yeg, the Minister of Belgium and Countess de Lichterfeld, the Chinese Minister and Mrs. W.
